MEETING FEBRUARY 2, 2010
WHITMORE PARK UNITED CHURCH, REGINA

After welcoming the members, the meeting began with some announcements.

A selection of Library books will be displayed at back of the meeting room for the next few guild meetings. Members are encouraged to borrow books either from the library downstairs or the table at the back.

Sally Baxter asked for volunteers to help organize raffle ticket sales at the malls.

Myrna Rosebrook said that the recycled tote bag challenge has been rescheduled for April, instead of the March meeting.

Lori Toursher presented an interesting and informative demonstration of the Disappearing Nine Patch.

Ted read a letter from the Regina Qu'Appelle Health District thanking the Guild for placemats donated to Meals on Wheels Program at Christmas.

The Moose Jaw Quilt Guild sent an invitation to a Gathering of the Guilds to be held at St. Andrew's United Church in Moose Jaw on Thurs. April 15 from 7-9 pm. Persons interested in attending should call 694-5743 by April 10.

Show and Share was held with a coffee break to follow.

Marlene Smith-Collins and Leann Clifford gave an update on the Quilt Show. Sharon Fraser asked for volunteers to make small pincushions to advertise our Quilt show.

Minutes for the January meeting, as published in the newsletter, were moved for adoption by Lori Toursher and seconded by Donna Hartung – CARRIED

Six blocks were submitted for the Valentine block lottery. Darla Dyck won them. Block exchange for March will be green/St. Patrick's theme. Six worms/strips are needed in the same theme.

50/50 draw of $30.00 was won by Trudy Radcliffe.

One visitor was welcomed to the meeting.

Ted adjourned the meeting at 8:45
